WINE NOTES

A quintessential dry white, this 2024 Texas High Plains Picpoul Blanc is vibrant, zesty, and mineral-driven, capturing the essence of the region's climate and terroir. Its crispness and freshness make it an ideal summer wine or an excellent aperitif. Perfect for pairing with seafood, oysters, grilled vegetables, or a fresh goat cheese salad.

Aging Potential:

While this wine is meant to be enjoyed young, its freshness and acidity should allow it to maintain its crisp character for a few more years, peaking in the next 1-2 years.
